RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

On October 15, 2014, Christina Lokay filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury which was caused by the influenza vaccine she received on November 19, 2013. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 12, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report [“Res. Report”] in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Res. Report at 3. Specifically, respondent believes petitioner’s injury is “consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA)” and agrees it was caused by the flu vaccine she received on November 19, 2013. Id. Respondent further agrees that petitioner's injury lasted for more than six months and "[n]o other causes for petitioner's SIRVA were identified." Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2006).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
